Partner

Dr. Eric Perru is the co-head of Wildgen's Dispute Resolution & Litigation Practice Group. As a passionate art enthusiast, he also leads the Wildgen 4 Art initiative, which concentrates on the areas of crossover between the art and legal worlds.

With the support of an implicated team, Eric deals with complex affairs in civil and commercial matters and has a vast expertise in contract law, enforcement procedures and debt collection. Eric also possesses extensive experience in banking and business litigation. His in-depth procedural knowledge and interest in Justice evolution in the digital era ensure he is able to provide his clients with highly effective defence.

Eric contributes frequently in media, focusing mostly on debt collection, enforcement procedures and art law.

Before joining our law firm in 2007, Eric was jurist in a French law firm active in corporate law. He also worked for a credit institution real estate. Eric has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2009.

Doctor in Law, specialised in private and criminal law (Université de Nancy II, France), Eric was awarded for his thesis on the Nonpayment (Prix de thèse de droit privé de la Faculté de droit de Nancy) in 2005, and was finalist of the Jean Bastin Prize, with congratulations of the jury in 2006. His thesis is available online: <http://www.lgdj.fr/l-impaye-9782275026473.html>

Eric holds a Criminal Post-Graduate Diploma (Université de Nancy II, France).
