

François BROUXEL

Managing Partner

Active for more than 25 years in the Luxembourg legal sector, François Brouxel joined Wildgen in 1992 and became Managing Partner, his current role, in 2016.

While François focuses on the direction and strategy of Wildgen, he also heads the corporate department and specialises in both cross-border and domestic corporate and financial law. He assists his clients with banking, reinsurance, securitisation, capital markets, and business litigation.

With his team, François devotes himself to providing his clients with tailor-made, top-notch services, advising them on both the basic and the thorny aspects of their requests. His constant concern for quality service is much appreciated by his clients, among whom are leading world-wide companies, major banks, high-net-worth individuals, and private equity houses.

François has been acknowledged by European Legal Experts as a corporate, banking, and financial expert for several years. He is specifically recommended by the most important legal directories and recognised as a Leading Lawyer by IFLR1000 for Capital Markets, Banking and M&A.

François is a member of the International Bar Association (IBA) and has been appointed board member of the Chambre Française de Commerce et de l'Industrie du Grand Duché de Luxembourg (CFCI). He is a frequent speaker at conferences both in Luxembourg and abroad.

François has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 1992.
