

Mevlüde-Aysun TOKBAG

Partner

Mevlüde-Aysun, Partner (RECHTSANWÄLTIN), co-heads both the Banking & Finance and the Investment Funds practice groups at Wildgen. As Head of the Wildgen German Desk, which includes a team of multidisciplinary German-national Rechtsanwälte, she provides German-speaking clients with a mix of legal excellence and shared understanding in regulatory banking and investment fund matters as well as mergers and acquisitions, private equity, insurance and real estate.

Mevlüde-Aysun is driven to develop new markets and relationships for the benefit of her clients and excels at making use of her German cultural and educational backgrounds. She provides the utmost assistance in cross-border transactions, in particular on the German side, which legal environment is best known to the team and herself.

Regulatory structuring of and for German-speaking companies are areas in which Mevlüde-Aysun provides excellent advice and support. Her clients include a number of institutional groups and investment funds, as well as corporates, insurance companies and investors. Mevlüde-Aysun also has been involved in a number of high-profile finance transactions. Having advised both lenders and borrowers, she has comprehensive experience with the issues faced by different parties to such operations.

"Mevlüde-Aysun Tokbag is an excellent lawyer, who communicates well and has strong skills and competencies" stated a client.

Mevlüde-Aysun contributes frequently in media and appears regularly as a panellist at privately-organised conferences, focusing mostly on regulated investment fund matters. In addition, Mevlüde-Aysun is highly committed to social initiatives. She founded and heads the Wildgen 4 Women project, born from a desire for expanded access to learning, leveraging and leadership opportunities. The project aims to provide ideas that will positively influence banking, financial and legal industry perceptions and practices, and facilitate an environment that supports women's advancement by organising, among others, women-only events and training sessions.

After beginning her career with Wildgen in 2005 and being admitted to the Bar Associations in Germany and Luxembourg in 2006, Mevlüde-Aysun is now a Recommended Lawyer in various rankings with the experienced support of her German Desk team.
