

Michel BULACH

Partner

Michel Bulach, Partner, heads the Banking & Finance Practice Group at WILDGEN. His field of expertise also includes corporate law, which enables him to represent and advise clients with regard to various legal aspects.

Michel is particularly active in the areas of corporate structuring, bank lending and structured finance transactions for SMEs, international groups, financial firms, and high-net-worth individuals. He has considerable experience advising financial institutions and their clients on regulatory matters (financial supervision, professional obligations, MIFID, PSD) and operational activities.

Mentioned as Wildgen's primary contact for banking and finance matters by independent specialised directories, Michel is an experienced lawyer and a much-valued expert for his clients who appreciate his "diligent efficiency" and his "excellent communication". Making the most of his large and international experience, notably in the Nordic countries region, Michel is the representative of Wildgen for the Nordic Countries-Belgium-Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce (Nobelux). He is also member of the Luxembourg International Bankers Forum (IBF) and of the International Bar Association (IBA).

Michel was selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in Luxembourg® and is recommended as a Leading Lawyer by IFLR1000 and Chambers & Partners for Banking and Finance.

Michel Bulach, Avocat à la Cour, has been member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2000, and was promoted to Partner at Wildgen in 2005.
